CREATING GENUINE, ELEVATED GUEST AND TEAM EXPERIENCES

Cascadia Liquor is in search of a highly motivated Assistant General Manager to join our talented team at our Uptown location!

Job Purpose:

As the Assistant General Manager (AGM), you will report to the General Manager (GM) and will be responsible for supporting the day-to-day management duties of the Cascadia Liquor location in partnership with the General Manager. This includes driving sales and providing and modeling an exceptional guest experience, managing expenses and inventory, and improving productivity and profitability, all while enhancing the brand. This position ensures compliance with government regulations and is involved in policy management.

You will be directly involved in the selection, supervision, and support of the team; communicating goals, processes, and policies and helping to problem solve and provide training and guidance. You are a natural leader and will help build a strong culture by motivating, recognizing, and supporting the growth and development of all team members. No job is too small for the Assistant General Manager. Our ideal candidate leads-by-example, with respect, and takes a pro-active approach in creating a positive guest and team experience. You will also support implementing marketing and promotional activities and strategies that continually increase sales, maximize margins and increase market share for the company to achieve financial objectives.

Position Details: Permanent, Full-Time. Hours of work may vary and be irregular. Evening and Weekend availability is required.

Compensation: Annual salary range $52,000 – $60,000 per annum, with a comprehensive compensation and benefits package.

Key Responsibilities

- Works in collaboration with the General Manager (GM) to recruit, lead and inspire a seasoned team of employees to meet productivity goals and deliver impeccable & consistent guest service quality and productivity.
