CREATING GENUINE, ELEVATED GUEST AND TEAM EXPERIENCES

We're hiring a full-time Sales Associate at our Uptown location!

Job Overview: As a Sales Associate, you will create memorable and positive experiences for our guests while guiding them to find their favorite beverage products. You'll get to work in a fun store environment where you'll have the opportunity to learn new things and build positive relationships every day. Our Sales Associates are committed to providing excellent customer service, upholding a high standard of cleanliness, and bringing a positive attitude to work.

Position Details: Part-time opportunity available. Requirement for evening shift availability.

Compensation: Starting at $18.00 per hour + tips.

Key Responsibilities

- Making guests happy and promoting a helpful and welcoming environment to ensure they arrive and leave with great impressions while delivering on our service standards.
- Bringing your positive, collaborative and hardworking attitude to work each day.
- Learning about Cascadia products to better connect with our guests by making excellent recommendations.
- Managing inventory with an eye for organization, display, and stocking of products.
- Keep the store clean and well-organized.
- Operate the cash register, handle financial transactions accurately and responsibly.
- Ensure full compliance with British Columbia's legal regulations concerning the sale of alcohol. This includes verifying the age of guests by checking IDs, especially under our 'ID under 30' policy, where IDs are checked for any guests who appears to be under 30 years old to confirm they meet the legal age requirement for alcohol purchases.
- Being part of a team of high achievers who genuinely care about the customer experience and the company they are representing.

Education, Skills and Qualifications:

- Cash handling experience in retail, hospitality, or food services.
